

An Endless Ministry of Loving Him

“If I wanted a ministry, I’d let You know as from Your presence I would go to take care of that which concerns You, and keep them ever in my view.

If I wanted a title I would say, marry me that I might display
Your mighty Name for all to see that I have Your authority.

If I wanted happiness and gain, then I would pray for a continuous rain of blessings and help for every need to cause my stress and fears to flee.

If I wanted knowledge and ability to see in depths that could unravel all mysteries, then I would seek You to know many things, grand and marvelous and earth-shattering.

But You’re all I want, just only You. So here, this is my simple state,
With all my heart, my soul, my strength... loving You alone will satiate.

Some may call me foolish and unwise,
But oneness with the Lamb is my only prize.”
