Message From Me to You

Dear Family in Jesus,

God bless each one of you for your love, encouragement and support in Christ. I am continually touched by the care of God our Father that flows through you, His Family and Christ's Body. I pray that the remaining days left in 2013 will be filled with the Spirit's tender care as He reveals and forms more of Jesus in us.

This year has been a year of "break-throughs" in my local church fellowship. The Lord spoke to us last New Year's Eve regarding His desire to break through in people's lives in areas where they have been wanting more of Jesus. The Lord ministered to us that even though that deep heart cry and need for more of Jesus has been there, the precious folks here just kept pouring out Jesus to others faithfully for years. How precious it must be to God when He sees His family pouring out His Son to others even when they feel needy for more of Him. It is easy to pour out Jesus to others when our cup "runneth over"; but it takes the Spirit of Christ to pour out from our lack.

I believe that precious heart of faith and love is in you as Christ just keeps loving and pouring out despite the vessel's lack or needs. We can tend to only see the broken and needy vessel, while the Father sees hearts that are willing to keep pouring out Jesus despite personal lack. Even as so many have faithfully put the needs of others above their own needs, the Father Himself comes to care for our needs and bring forth more of His Son in us. Please know that we continue to remember you in our "break-through" prayers throughout the rest of 2013. You are loved and precious to God and to so many.

Together in His Love,
Kelly

My home fellowship in Denton hosts an annual "Hungering Conference" every year over Thanksgiving weekend. During the months of October and November I am heavily involved in helping prepare for this conference together with the precious saints in my church.

One of the areas I am always involved with is the production of the "Christ As Life Worship" Cd's. These Cd's are filled with original worship songs written by folks from all over! All the songs emphasize Christ as our Life. This will be our tenth year producing Christ As Life Worship Cd's. These Cd's could make a wonderful Christmas gift.

I will also be making available Cd and Dvd compilation sets of the Ireland Conference from last May. They include all the teaching sessions as well as a slideshow and testimonial Dvd. If you are interested in purchasing a Christ As Life worship Cd or a Compilation Set from the 2013 Ireland Conference, please email me at kellyreallylovesjesus@gmail.com and I can give you more information.
