

His Garden

The Garden of the Lord, so lovely
A place so rich and sweet.

Where all His little winged-ones
Sit at Jesus' feet.

A place where He can roll & play
And take His pleasures all the day.

Truly here He's loved the best.
And in this place He can take His rest.

It's not a lifestyle choice,
It's not adhering to proper doctrines,
Better than "doing the right thing",
Sweeter than all earthly pleasures,
Beyond the thought of sin and punishment
Into the realm of swallowed up in Oneness!
Jesus desires to have a relationship with you!
Not off in heaven in some day,
but right now, here, and everyday!
