

“And I Say Come”

Who will come away to dwell in m
Who will seek me for my heart
Like the morning she appears to me
Rising, her dawning fills my eyes

(Chorus)

And I say come, And I say come,
And I say come away to me
And I say come, And I say come
And I say come away with me (and you'll be free)
(and soar with me)

She will stay here far above the earth
Never clothed with Babylon
She will not become defiled with them
She has kept my garments on (Chorus)

And you will dwell with me through all the years
Separate and from above
Turn your heart and then your eyes will see
What true marriage is made of (Chorus)

We will fly far above the earth
And live together in my place
Soaring one throughout eternity
She will only see my face

(Chorus)

And I (we) run, and I will run,
And I will run, Your drawing me
And she cries come, and she cries come,
And she cries come and soar with me
And you'll be free
