

HOSEA CLASSES

Hast thou heard Him, seen Him,
Known Him?
Is not thine a captured heart?
Chief among ten thousand own Him,
Joyful choose the better part.
Idols, once they won thee, charmed thee—
Lovely things of time and sense.
Gilded thus does sin disarm thee,
Honeyed, lest thou turn thee thence.

What has stripped the seeming beauty
From the idols of the earth?
Not a sense of right or duty,
But the sight of peerless worth.

Not the crushing of those idols,
With its bitter void and smart;
But the beaming of His beauty,
The unveiling of His heart.

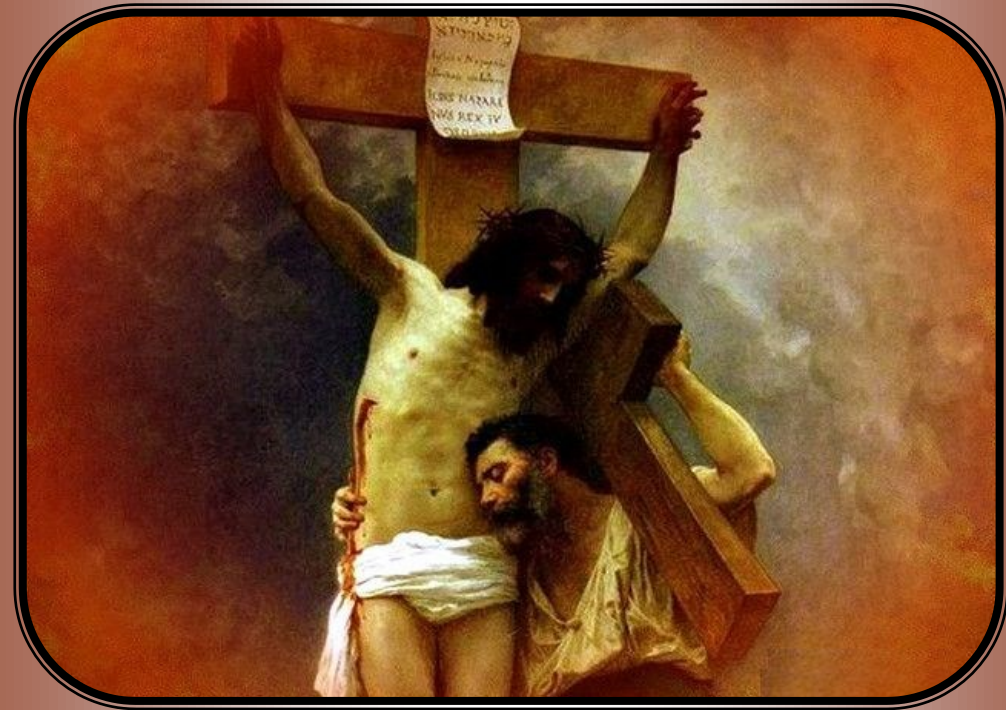

Who extinguishes their taper
Till they hail the rising sun?
Who discards the garb of winter
Till the summer has begun?

‘Tis that look that melted Peter,
‘Tis that face that Stephen saw,
‘Tis that heart that wept with Mary,
Can alone from idols draw—

Draw and win and fill completely,
Till the cup o’erflow the brim;
What have we to do with idols
Who have companied with Him? (anonymous)

“Closer To His Heart”

The theme for our upcoming conference in Ireland

Well, if this outfit isn't Irish enough for ya, I don't know what to say! Thank you for your prayers over the Irish Festival. After several days of snow (in Texas) the sun finally broke free and shined on the festival and our Irish tent! Jesus filled our tent area and we had a wonderful experience in Him! The team that participated in this fundraiser were tremendous in the spirit of Christ in which they poured out. We encountered countless challenges, including sudden rain, moving the tent indoors, long traffic delays and a lot of physical labor from early morning to late night hours. Yet in every challenge more of Jesus was released through the team. The leadership of this Dallas festival were deeply touched by the team and a relationship in the Lord has sprung forth with great favor for years to come.

As soon as the festival was over my parents flew into town and I was blessed with special time with them. A few days after my parents returned home I became sick with a stubborn case of the flu. Even as I am writing this newsletter, I am still quite weak and not fully recovered.

As I have been laying in bed for days now, I have had time to meditate on the heart of Jesus without much distraction. I am trying to think of words to type in here to share about this time I am having with Him.... but tears come instead of words. The best and deepest I will share from this season of knowing His heart is coming forth in the Hosea classes I am teaching at this time. If you are interested, the classes are on the fire website. Due to an extremely full schedule and sickness, I have not had time to write a newsletter article this month but would like to refer you to the website and offer these Hosea recordings as a substitute for this month's article.

In less than a month I will be hosting our annual international conference in Ireland. We are not a large gathering but I believe we are a significant gathering to God because Christ Crucified is lived, preached, released and received during this special time. The few, the hungry gather. They gather to Him. They gather at cost to themselves. They gather to His heart. And God sees this, and something is released into Europe through this coming together with one heart and mind of these saints. Oh hallelujah for the eternal thing God is doing during this time.

Whether by life or death, may HE BE MANIFEST in us! *Yours in Him,
Kelly*
