

ESCAPE

Did I just escape from an opportunity to decrease
and increase Christ in me?

Am I relieved to be released?
Do I enjoy this false sense of peace?

The temple is divided,
its stones torn apart.
Can I not feel God's broken heart?

Or am I only aware of how I feel?
To me, is that all that is truly real?

When comes the day when what I see is my need for a deep devastation... Oh come, Calvary.

Fire Ministries International

January 2015

So built we the wall, and all the wall was joined together. Nehemiah 4:6

May God grant us in this new year to be built together as His habitation. May Christ find a place of rest in us. May we be unto Him a home as the Spirit knits us together in His love.

Ephesians 2:21-22

Dear and Beloved Family in Christ,

HAPPY 2015 IN JESUS! Wow. A new year is here already. For many of us it may feel as if 2015 is already planned out even before we step into it. The hand of the Lord has been heavy upon me to not just go into the pre-set routine of the events lined up for this new year, but to seek His heart with all my heart. I am burdened deep within to not slip into routine ministry but rather to SEEK HIS HEART AND FACE so that I might truly move by His Life and heart through this upcoming year. Please pray for me, I so desperately need to see and know Him more.

As I look ahead into 2015 and see all that the Lord has already initiated for Fire Ministries, I find my heart trembling with the desire that it would only function through His Son and therefore unto His glory. I am already in the process of organizing three trips to Ireland and a new outreach in Dallas. In the midst of all of that I continue to rely on the Lord to provide for the needs of the ministry in practical and daily ways. Yet, with all of that to consider, right now my heart is simply focused on filling up on Him. Oh, to know Him more...

I would like to set forth a slightly new format in our monthly newsletters for 2015. Each month I would like to dedicate one portion of the newsletter to a step from our "Guidelines For Building Little Altars" book. My goal in doing this is two-fold: First, that it would help us focus on applying the cross in a daily and practical way throughout 2015. Secondly, that we could encourage and stand with one another as we press in together for the Lord to gain new ground in us (His Body and Home)! This would include some of you emailing me comments and prayer requests in reference to the step we are on each month. Those comments could then be published in the upcoming newsletters to share support and encouragement with one another. This may evolve into times of group sharing and praying on Skype for those who want to pursue it even further. Many of us feel a desperation to pursue and gain Christ in real and practical ways. This is just one way that we can dedicate ourselves together to help that happen. I will continue to include an article and ministry updates within the monthly newsletters.

I am continually humbled and blessed by Christ through His Body. This ministry exists because of Jesus through you. Your prayers, love and care are a sweet savor of His Life and I can never thank you enough.

Your servant in Christ, Kelly

More Hosea Articles Coming Soon...

We will continue with our series of articles on Hosea in the upcoming months. I will be teaching a class on Hosea at ACTS bible school for the next several months, and will have those classes also uploaded on the fire website.

Please pray for Fire Ministries:

- * Preparations of heart for God's desires in 2015
- * our altar building journey together
- * the upcoming trips and all who will attend
- * ministry financial needs
