A New Year in Newness of Life

“There is no thought of fatigue or failure or surrender here; the outward man begins to give place before the advent of that inner man who is forever renewed, even while the outward man is perishing. A far more exceeding weight of glory and hope is coming into the light, and completely counterbalancing and outweighing these temporary trials. We are no longer looking on the surface of things; our inner eyes are fixed on the invisible which is the eternal Christ forming in us, Him Who endures forever.”

(II Cor. 4:16-17)

Dear Family in Jesus!

I hope your Christmas and New Years was a refreshing time of sweet communion in the Lord and with family. We are now in 2013! There is so much in Jesus' heart for us in 2013!! He is passionate for His bride. May the things of His heart define what is important to us in this upcoming year. In mid December (last month) the Lord began stirring and burdening my heart with His desires for the ministry in Ireland in 2013. I am feeling His heart beating in my own chest, and I know that He is moving by His Spirit according to His desire for what is coming ahead. At this point I am “knee-deep” in preparations for two upcoming trips to Ireland.

The first trip will be a conference in May, and the second will be a “Life-Gathering” for young adults in July. Because of the need to organize schedules and raise funds, much work needs to be done at this early stage. For that reason I would cherish your prayers. May the preparations of our hearts and hands truly be filled with the Life of Christ.

For the past several months I have been sharing a bible-study on Ezekiel. This study is part of a tremendous journey God has led me on through the Major Prophets that has thrilled my heart beyond words. This month's newsletter is part four in a series of articles that are the result of this precious time of seeing Christ in the book of Ezekiel. The articles outline the materials that are being covering in our bible study. If you would like to read the first three parts of this series, you can find them online at www.christaslife.com under my name at the "text" tab.

My desire in sharing the Word through the newsletter articles has always been to fellowship together in the joy and excitement of knowing Jesus! I just love to hear from each of you in the areas that Christ is being revealed in and to you. May this upcoming year be a time of rich fellowship as we feast together on the living Christ. Being His Body corporately means that we each have a supply of the Life of Christ that will strengthen and nourish the whole. In other words, WE NEED THE JESUS YOU HAVE!! Together we bear His Life and I thank God for being joined with YOU in this adventure of know Him, growing in Him, and sharing Him with the world. My prayer for each of you during 2013 is that the Word of God would become alive in ways like never before, and that the Holy Spirit will overshadow you until Christ be formed in you to a greater degree. God bless you.

A New Year's Prayer

Lord, I want to start this New Year with You at the foot of the Cross where I shed my old selfish ways like old skin. I want to eat Your Word, the Word that is Your crucified flesh and out-poured Blood.

I want to partake of You until it gets deep inside of me, until my inward parts are filled with the essence and nature of Your Life. I cleave to You until my change comes. I hold fast to your nail scarred feet and abide. May 2013 be the year of Your increase and my decrease.

I love you Jesus.
