

So often He told His disciples,
That He must die, be buried
and rise from the dead,
But they didn't seem to understand
That this truth would be as He said.

Die, and be raised from the dead,
Now how could that really be,

Peter said, "Not so Lord,"
This truth He could not see.

But on that Sunday morning,
When Mary went out, behold,
He was no longer in the tomb,
It was just as He had told.

"He Is Risen," the Angel said to her
"Risen as He said,
with resurrection Power,
He's no longer with the dead!"

O glorious Easter morning,
His work on earth complete,
Now He is risen in our hearts,
He lives in you and me.

Fire Ministries

April 2013

*"Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires,
even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea."*

Preparing For Ireland Conference

THANK YOU for your prayers and loving care in regards to the upcoming trip to Ireland. Please continue to cover us in prayer, and all those who will be gathering at the conference. Our greatest desire is the Lord would be satisfied and ministered to in our midst. Your intercession is such a vital part of all the Lord is doing. Without you, this ministry could not go forth. We move together as His Body, for God has made us One in Christ. I will be leaving for Ireland the end of this month and I take you with me in heart and spirit. Please pray for the physical needs of my team, as well as the overall care of all who attend the conference in Ireland. Also, thank you for your financial giving towards the trip. Your love offerings are making this trip possible. Together for His Glory! Kelly

Fundraising For Ireland Conference

On Saint Patrick's Day Fire Ministries held a celebration. We learned about Saint Patrick, danced, laughed, ate, and raised funds for the upcoming mission trip. We also prayed for all that is in God's heart for this trip. Thank you New Creation Fellowship!

Happy Resurrection in Christ!

My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely. Song of Songs 2:10-14

Finally, it is springtime! It is a time when new, fresh life blossoms and things that looked dead come alive. It is also around the time when we celebrate Easter, Christ's resurrection from the dead. After a long, cold winter, one can wonder if the sun will ever shine warmth again, and if the tender blossoms of spring will ever appear. This may have been the way the disciples felt the days after Christ was crucified. The last they saw or heard of the Lord, He was dead and gone. His life was over and they were in the cold winter of a life without Jesus. Little did they know that the time of New Life was coming for Christ was about to arise from the grave! We can experience these same feelings in our own personal walk with Jesus. There are times when we feel that we are dead on the inside, our hearts feel cold and empty. Where is the warmth and New Life of the Son? Yet, just when hope in our own goodness and strength has died, up from deep within us springs forth the Life of Jesus... the Resurrection Himself. When Mary and Martha were weeping over dead Lazarus, doubting the Lord's care and thinking all hope was gone, Jesus came forth and boldly declared, "I am the Resurrection and the Life... Lazarus come forth!" Jesus does the same thing in our lives today! Just when we think we are dead on the inside and all hope is gone,... Jesus springs forth and arises from our deadness bringing with Him the eternal springtime of His beautiful Life. We are filled with HIM, our Resurrection. Glory, Hallelujah. Praise God for His Spring!!!
