

New On The Fire Ministries Website:

- Poem Page
- New "Like A Dove" Classes
- New Format for Reading literature pages
- New Articles and Past Newsletters
- 2014 Ireland Women's Conference uploaded
- Dyslexic doG Cd songs page

Visit: www.fireministriesinternational.com

The Lord has begun opening some new doors for "Dyslexic doG", (the Christian Blues Band I play in). Sharing Christ through music is a wonderful way to minister to young people. May the Lord continue to share His love and life through us in all we do!

Your faithful giving will help make it possible for Kelly to continue to minister in Ireland in 2014. If you would like to support Kelly's work in this ministry, please send your tax deductible love gifts to:

F.I.R.E. Ministries c/o Kelly Koshatka
P.O. Box 1961 Denton, Texas 76202
kellyreallylovesjesus@gmail.com

Fire Ministries

August 2014

Sharing Christ In Ireland

FIRE in IRELAND

Praying For The Next Generation

For quite a while now I have been feeling a fresh burden from the Lord concerning sowing Christ Crucified into the next generation. I feel the Spirit reaching out to the hidden ones who are crying out for the Living God from deep within. They may not understand what their heart is yearning for and how such a deep spiritual hunger can truly be filled... but they are open and they are hungry.

So many times the church world presents something less than Christ Himself to these precious open hearts. Programs, ministries, and teaching can begin to fill up the heart that was crying out for LIFE. Young people need to encounter the living Christ. They need to see the Cross in action in the lives of their leaders, uncompromised by the leaven of man's religion and selfish gain. They need to encounter Christ in the scriptures in a way that rents the veil as they see Jesus in the power of the Spirit. They need to know it is OK to forsake all and follow Jesus, to give themselves fully unto God in whatever way He is calling them. We need to not limit how far they can go in their pursuit of Christ as Life.

Well, all of these thoughts are challenges to me personally. In September I will be leading a young adult's retreat in Ireland for almost two weeks, and I want my heart to be right... prepared of God for them. But the burden of my heart extends far beyond me and this upcoming trip to every heart everywhere that the Spirit is drawing to Jesus, and their needs to be fed and nurtured in the Lord. Please join with me for a season of interceding for these. The Spirit knows how to pray for them, and He will pray through us. What a privilege to sow into the next generation from all that has been sown into us! Thank you for always being such a strength in the Lord as our hearts join together for His purposes in the earth. I appreciate each one of you dearly.

THE DROSS CRISIS

Help! I see my dross rising to the surface... rising with a purpose... to ruin and destroy me.

How? How could Jesus love me, seeing what is "of" me... the vile and the impure?

Hide! I must run and hide me, shamefully revile me... hiding what's inside me so no-one can see.

Who? Who could ever love me, truly truly love me,... if they saw me for who I really am?

Forever? Must I live like this forever... hiding and abiding in places of deceit?

...

COME. Come unto the fountain, Come unto the Tree. Come into communion with the Crucified's Calvary.

FIND. Find grace eternal. Find the Lamb and bow low. Let your fig-leaves fall off as the blood and water flows.

SEE. See yourself inside Him. Now you can abide IN. Hiding nothing but knowing you are crucified and free.

REST. Rest in His work. Believe that His death was your death. Enter into oneness through the work of Calvary.

...

DROSS? Yes. My dross is rising, rising to the surface, rising with the purpose of Christ being formed in me.

What a blessing to know Christ as our Life! The refining process of Christ being formed in us requires heat and pressure which causes the "dross" of self to rise! In the midst of our trials may our hearts learn to embrace Christ who crucified the old man and has removed the dross of self that still sometimes rises. May we trust the Holy Spirit to form Christ (the pure Gold) in us as God our Father reveals His Son within.

*"Be Ye Transformed through the renewing of your minds"
Romans 12:2*