Chronological Timeline Of Kings and Prophets

David comes on the scene... a heart filled with filling Jerusalem with the very Presence and Person of God...

That God's people would truly contain and bring forth The Son.

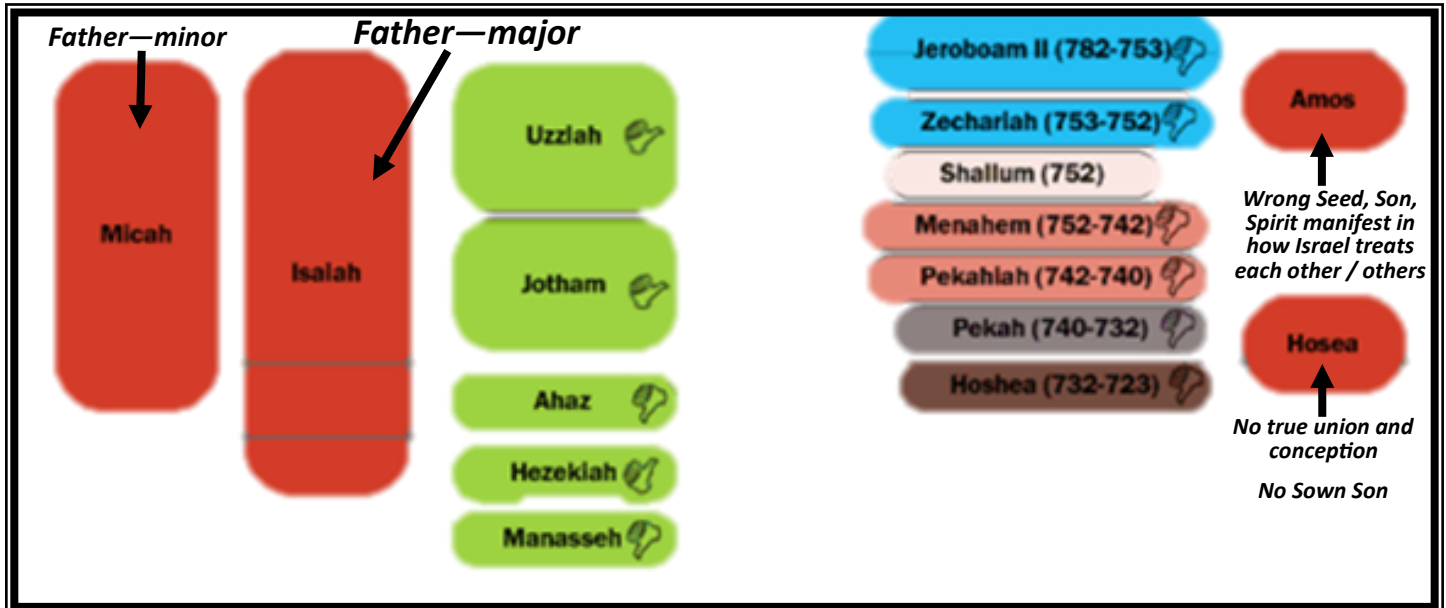

After Solomon (David's Son) dies,... the Kingdom divides and God's vision and heart fades in the people.

Their purpose is no longer to bring forth the Son and offer Him as a Lamb in sacrifice.

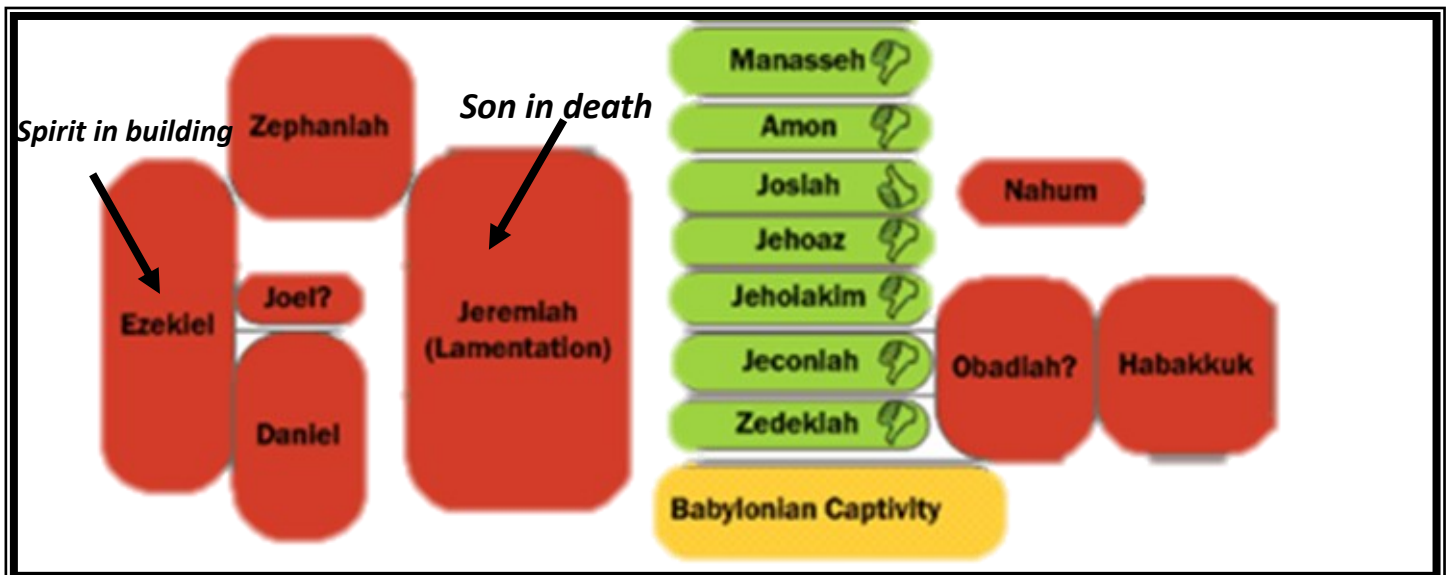

God begins to raise up prophets to cry out His heart to the people.

Prophets who feel and bear God's burden to bring forth His Son.

The first group of prophets to cry out in unison is the "Quartet" of Isaiah, Amos, Micah and Hosea

The next group of prophets cry out together concerning bringing forth the Son in captivity. They release the desperate pleas from the Father's heart to receive His Firstborn Son out of those who missed His heart but can still find it in the land of their chastisement.

The final group is the cries to rebuild Jerusalem from the burnt stones to those who found the Son in captivity and want to enthrone Him corporately.
